RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, under City Council's resolution of July 11, 2005, the City of Quincy honorarily designated 8th Street as "Dr. M. L. King, Jr. Drive" to commemorate Dr. King's historic work and contribution in leading the charge for equality, tolerance and diversity among our Nation's citizenry; and

WHEREAS, City Council further authorized under said resolution the installation of Dr. King, Jr. honorary signs at twenty-two (22) intersections along 8th Street; and

WHEREAS, as a further example of the City's commitment to continue to encourage equality, tolerance and diversity within our community and beyond, the City desires to install additional Dr. King, Jr. honorary signs at all other intersections along 8th Street.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by City Council that the City shall install honorary "Dr. M. L. King, Jr. Drive" signs at all other intersections along 8th Street that are not already placard with the honorary signs.

Request to Speak

Written request to speak under suspended rules by Claire Safford, 1809 Grove Ave., regarding the resolution to install additional honorary Dr. M. L. King signs on 8th Street.

Rules Suspended

Ald. Havermale moved the rules be suspended at this time to hear from Mrs. Safford.

Claire Safford, 1809 Grove Ave., asked the council to pass the resolution in front of them tonight authorizing the installation of the additional honorary Dr. M. L. King signs on 8th street at various intersection on behalf of the coalition. Safford reiterated they are only asking for “Honorary” signs. They are not coming back and asking to change the name of Eighth Street. Safford then addressed some of the rumors going around. She again reiterated they are “Honorary” signs only.

Ald. Havermale moved the rules be resumed. Motion carried.

Ald. Duesterhaus, moved for the adoption of the resolution, seconded by Ald. Havermale, and on the roll call the following vote resulted: Yeas: Ald.
